- Mother! o'er thine infant bending.
- Mother I o'er thine infant bending,
 in its geathe, gentic sleep,
 Graing till thy soul is swelling.
 With exactions alrong and deep,
 Leaps there not within thy beaces.
 A new fount of joy and pride.
 Swester than the dreams we functed,
 When we wandered side by side,
 In life's early bepeful merriting.
 When we wandered side by aids?
- When we wandered mue by slow were ours; Bright the hopes that then were ours; Joyously we tred life's pathway, Flucking nothing but its flowers. He a bark by breeze of summer Barne along a genile stream, So these days, without a shadow, Gidded like a sunsy dream.

 O'er life's blue and wedling billow, Sweet and silont as a dream.

- But the tide is pushing faster,
 And the willows by the shore,
 On our way their silent shadows
 Dimity now are drouping o'er.
 Life has lest its ideal brightness,
 We have fett its grief and pain,
 Childhand's hopes of fairy lightness,
 Come not to our hearts again,
 ing as the morning dew-drops,
 on we wish them back again?
- Bending o'cethy smilling infant,
 Ah! young mother, thou dost feel
 Deeper love and nobler impulse.
 Than youth's highest alms reveal.
 Fold him closely to thy bosom.
 Let thy heart with rapture swell,
 Thine to keep in sinless beauty.
 Thine to lone—but not ree well;
 Else the "Glorious Giver" 'ciaim it,
 For He dooth all things well.

True joy is a serene and sober emotion; and they are miserably out, that take laughing for rejoicing; the seat of it is within, and there is no cheerfulness like the resolution of a brave mind.

"In the heraldry of Heaven," writes Bishop Horn, "goodness precedes greatness, so on earth it is often more powerful. The lowly and the lovely may often do more in their own limited sphere than the gifted."

Blessings which we have slighted when in our possession, are more highly prized when there is danger of our being deprived of them; and our hearts are more keenly touched by the anticipations of loss than by the fullness of enjoyment.

Gratitude is the fairest blossom which springs from the soul; and the heart of man knoweth none more frequent. While its opponent, ingratitude, is a deadly weed not only poisonous in itself, but impregnating the very atmosphere in which it grows with fetid vapor.

NEW AND VALUABLE. The most powerful King on the face of the globe now reigns suppressed in the American Republic. The power of the crowned heads of Europe sink into insignificance when compared to that of our American King. European Kings employ the power vested in them to increase the riches of the rich and lordly, and to reduce a greater misery and degradable the poor and dependent. Our American King goes forth with equal willingness to the lordly mansion and humble cable, ready allice to administer relief and to offer health and happpiness to the lofty and lowly, the rich and the poor.

Yest trave only to use this magical remedy. All those who still suffer, and will not accept the profilered balin, deserve not the pity of their families.

This wonderful medicine, during the brief period sluce its introduction, has carried happiness to the hearts of thousands, and made life a charm to many who heretofors regarded it only are painful and miserable existence.

To the winds with all Limments, Embresatious, Pain Killers, and Pain Extractors, and let millions of glad tongues proclaim the merits of the great. American King of Pain, a preparation composed solely of vegetables and roots, produced by America's own rich and hountsons soll.

We would ask the Ladins, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influences in its behind; recommend it, speak well and often of the and see that it is used by their afflicted neighbors. The Ladins are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they can well be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical comedy for all external diseases, sores, sweldings, burns, &c., and for many internal afflictors, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the scaleset constitution.

all comments on the efficacy of Guil's Sarsaparilla. From Dr. Le P Yandell, Professir of Chemistry in the Louisvilla
Medical College: I have looked over the list of ingredients composing John Buil's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, and have no hestiation in eaving that they form a side
compound, and one that promises well in chronic diseases,
to which it is applicable.
Le P. YANDELL, M. D.

What Dr. Pyies, physician by appointment to the Louleville Marine Hospital, says of Buil's Sarsaparilla:
Louisvilla, March 20, 1848.

What Dr. Pyles, physician by appointment to the Lou leville Marine Hospital, says of Huir Sarsaparilla; I have examined the prescription for the preparation of John full's Sarsaparilla, and I believe the combination in be an excellent one, and well encolated to produce a alterative impression on the system. I have used it best in public and private practice, and think it the best article of Sarsaparilla now in use.

We have used John Buil a Sarsapprilla, and have know it to be used, with entire satisfaction; and we have a hesitation in stating our beinef, that it is a safe an Tainable inedical compound, and calculated to produce much good and relieve much suffering; and therefore would chaerfully and most earnestly recommend it to the afflicted.
